This map shows the locations of deposits with a focus on gold or silver according to which type of resource is predominant. It highlights the Independence Trend, which is a notable area of interest for mineral resources in Nevada.